ROME — Pro-Western government of Premier Amintore Fanfani toppled Monday and plunged the country into a political whirlpool that could result in general elections.

Fanfani, 49, was plagued by divisions in both parties of his coalition government that made it increasingly impossible to get any national business done. His government lasted six months and 24 days. It was the 20th major crisis in Italian politics since the fall of Fascism in 1943.

A-Test Police Switch Offered Reds at Talks

GENEVA (AP)—The Western powers Monday offered Russia the right to fill half the jobs in all nuclear test control posts set up on U.S. and British territory.

In return the American and British delegations asked for the same concession by the Soviet Union.

The American proposal means that nationals of any country should not be the watchdogs to determine whether their own government has violated a ban on tests.

The Russians, who have been demanding that control posts in their own territory be staffed by Russians, modified their proposals somewhat. They suggested that each station should have "four or five foreign controllers" rather than one or two as they previously had proposed.

But the Western powers said the Russians still held back on true international control — a point on which the American and British delegations say they never will compromise.

'Gloom Spreader'

OTTAWA (CP)—W. F. Matthews (PC-Nanaimo) said Monday the Liberal party has launched a new machine called a "gloom spreader."

Mr. Matthews urged that old age pensioners receive their pensions even if they live outside the country.

Council Scores Police Inaction

Oak Bay council decided last night to complain to the police commission that no action is being taken by police to make cyclists put reflectors and lights on their bikes.

Councillors agreed "the police seem loath to do anything."

World Red Congress Opens Today

MOSCOW (Reuters) — A Communist party world congress — the most important single event in Russia and almost as significant for much of the world — begins here today.

The congress is expected to be highlighted by Premier Khrushchev's plan, in a speech today, to give the Soviet Union world economic supremacy by 1970 through the new 1959-65 development plan which the congress is expected to put into final shape and then approve.

Eskimo Habits Worsen

OTTAWA (CP) — Indications of a growth of objectionable habits among Canada's Eskimoes, including petty thievery and prostitution, dictate that action should be taken to bar them from defence centres, mining communities and similar settlements "unless and until they have both employment and housing," the Northwest Territories Council was told Monday.

Commissioner L. H. Nicholson of the RCMP said urgent action is necessary at a few northern points.

Tory Arctic Vision 'Never Brighter'

OTTAWA (CP) — The government's vision of northern development is brighter than ever, Northern Affairs Minister Alvin Hamilton said Monday.

Referring in the Commons throne speech debate to what he said were press "hints that the vision is fading," he declared: "Exactly the opposite is true.

"Never has the government been so busy as it now is," Mr. Hamilton said. It was pushing plans and projects in the first phase of a program to build a nation of 50,000,000 population.

ANOTHER ONE OF THE Sportsman CIGARETTE SERIES

How many of these hockey infractions can you name?

1. TRIPPING. Most common of penalties. Called on player who trips opponent with his stick, leg or arm.
2. HOOKING. The use of blade end of stick as a "hook" on opponent's body. Player may hook opponent's stick.
3. HIGH-STICKING. Carrying of sticks above normal shoulder height. Often called on two opponents simultaneously.
4. CROSS-CHECKING. Misuse of the stick when check is delivered with both hands on stick and stick off the ice.

Whether you're watching from rink-side or at home, take time out to light up a Sportsman. From the very first puff you'll know that this blend of rich Virginia tobaccos gives you the clean, smooth smoke you're looking for.
